

PLANS FOR CUSTOMSCOURT

The President is Considering Appointments

LOYD AS DEPUTY AT WORK

Wickersham Has Confidence in the New Tribunal—Court Will Sit in Various Sections of the Country.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The United States court of customs appeals, which is to consist of a presiding judge and four associated judges, will be named by the president shortly after the opening of Congress. The selection of Mr. Lloyd of New York was made to attend to business accumulating before the judges are appointed and the court is organized, and he was designated, according to the Attorney General, as a deputy assistant attorney general for the purpose of the attorney general, an office authorized by the same act, requires presidential nomination and confirmation by the Senate.

Meantime the attorney general is considering the question of the organization of the court and will have its personnel fairly made up for recommendation to the president. These offices are authorized under the act creating the court: Five judges at $10,000 a year, appointive by the president; a marshal, at $3,000 a year, appointive by the court; a clerk at $4,000 a year, appointive by the court; an assistant attorney general, at $10,000 a year, appointive by the president; a deputy assistant attorney general (Mr. Lloyd), at $7,500 a year; four attorneys, at $5,000 a year each, and special attorneys and counsellors-at-law, appointive at will by the attorney general whenever he deems the public interests require it, their compensation to be fixed by him.

Mr. Wickersham expresses great confidence in the practicability of the organization of the new court, saying that it was wise to concentrate all customs appeal matters in one court, from which there is no appeal, save as to questions involving the constitutionality of a law. The court is required to organize in this city within ninety days after the judges qualify, following their nomination, but meetings of the court are authorized elsewhere as well as in Washington.

Mr. Wickersham said that he had made no plans to participate in arguments in any case before the supreme court in the immediate future except in the anti-trust law prosecutions of the American Tobacco company, and he was not quite sure whether he would be able to take part in that also; he expected to do so. The time fixed for the hearing of the case, Oct. 12, will allow so little time for his preparation for argument, he explained. Asked as to other prosecutions under the anti-trust laws, he said plans "are working," but he had nothing to say beyond that. He paid a high tribute to the New Jersey judiciary system.

Must Exterminate The Dogfish.

Whether the valuable lobster or the worthless dogfish of the waters of Rhode Island and Massachusetts is to be allowed to survive, is a burning question that is receiving the careful consideration of Commissioner George M.

Are Microbes in Your Scalp?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried out under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the sebaceous glands, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being restored.

Dandruff is a contagious disease which is largely due to a destructive microbe, which when left to pursue its course causes itching scalp, falling hair and baldness. Dandruff is caused by the microbe affecting the glands which produce the sebaceous matter, which latter then naturally dries up and scales off.

We have a remedy which will, we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by making every hair root, follicle and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely free from grease or sediment, is exceedingly pleasant to use and will not gum the hair or permanently soil the clothing or pillow.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give it a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it in Barre only at our store, Red Cross Pharmacy, Bart H. Wells, Prop.

GODDARD LOST FIRST.

Was Defeated by Norwich University's Second Team.

Northfield, Oct. 8.—The foot ball team representing Goddard seminary was defeated yesterday afternoon by the Norwich second team by a score of 11 to 2. The local team was much heavier than the Goddard boys and it was thought the seconds would run up a larger score than they did. The Goddard team was very good on the defensive and after the first half, in which all the scoring was done, they held their opponents down to small gains and no scoring.

The touchdowns for Norwich were made by Foss and Schackowski after a number of line plunges, and a quarter back run, while Goddard's one score came when the Norwich team was penalized and the penalty brought the ball back to the line, counting a safety. In the second half the visitors branched up and the locals were unable to work their plunges through the line that gained so much advantage for them in the first half. This game was the first of the season for Goddard.

The line-up was as follows:

Norwich 2ds. Goddard.
Kinsman, l. e. r. e. Sector
Whipple, l. t. r. t. Towles
Putnam, l. g. r. g. Connolly

Base Ball Notes.

President Taylor of the Red Sox has denied the story that he has decided to trade Speaker, McConnell and Niles for Lajoie.

Bob Ganley of the Philadelphia Americans has been sold to Kansas City of the American association.

The Philadelphia Americans are to start on a tour of the 19th of October and will play a picked national team on their trip. They will tour the United States for about a month. They have a two weeks' engagement in San Francisco.

The Chicago Nationals ended up their 1908 season with a double victory from St. Louis, which puts them 44 points behind the standing of the Pirates. It is estimated that the Red Sox played to 1,086,708, which makes the team stand third in drawing ability during the season.

A VERY BAD LITHUANIAN.

Behavior of Blastek Buche Gets Him Into Trouble.

Manchester, Oct. 8.—Blastek Buche, a Lithuanian, 22 years old, was in court yesterday, charged with aggravated assault upon Blastek Cronick, "boss" of a Left Boarding house at 22 Derryfield lane.

He was held in $400 for the grand jury and went to jail. Buche was recently jilted by Zofia Feysk and after seeing her on the street with another fellow, followed her to her lodgings at Cronick's house and attacked her with a knife. Friends intervened and he ran away.

He returned at 10:30 p. m. and was refused entrance by Cronick. Buche then attacked Cronick and slashed him about the body and head. Thomas Nolovich, the girl's cousin, overpowered Buche and held him until the police arrived, but was slightly stabbed himself.

SEWER GAS EXPLODES.

Accident in New York City Does Considerable Damage.

New York, Oct. 8.—Sewer explosions yesterday afternoon did much damage in that part of the west side of the town bounded by Forty-second street, Fifty-third street, Tenth avenue and Broadway. The police department, fire department, street railroad wrecking crews and the street-cleaning department all rushed men to the scene, while thousands of persons crowded the streets and gave the police reserve from four precincts a hard task. More windows than can be counted were shattered in some homes in the district not a whole window being left. The explosions were ascribed to high tides backing up the sewer gases. There were five separate explosions and the list of injured will probably contain 35 names. A boy standing on a cover as it flew into the air is so badly hurt he may die.

FEAR FOR FINN AUTONOMY

Great Effort to Break Present Barriers

UNABLE TO GET ANYONE

The Statement of a Liberal Leader—The Overthrow of Present Ruling Forces Is Both Necessary and Easy.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 8.—It is reported here from Helsingfors that the governor general of Finland contemplates forming a Senate from the Finns now in the Russian military service to replace the senators who last month notified him that they would not accept reappointment to office because the Russian cabinet insisted the Finnish Senate assign $4,000,000 as Finland's contribution for the defense of the empire. The Finns were willing to contribute only $2,000,000 annually. This step is proposed as the only way out of the present situation, as the constitution requires that the Finnish Senate be composed of Finnish subjects, but Finns of all parties flatly refuse to accept office under the present conditions.

Finnish public opinion is highly alarmed at the possibilities of the present crisis, which is an outcome of a series of measures adopted during the past two years, with the view of bringing Finland into closer relations with the empire. Premier Stolypin has been aided in the struggle by the general revival throughout Russia of the spirit of nationalism. This affects also the majority in the Duma, which finds that the old system of personal union with Finland through the emperor is inconsistent with the idea of Russian nationalism.

KILLING OFF GERMANS IN CHINA.

Story of The Death of Brunhuber and Schmidt Near Burness Frontier.

Berlin, Oct. 8.—A dramatic narrative of the killing of Messrs. Brunhuber and Schmidt, the leaders of a German exploring expedition in China near the Burness frontier some months ago is published here in a letter from missionary G. Nouborg, which has been transmitted through the British consul at Tengkuoh. Eye witnesses related to the missionary that the two scientists had pitched their tent on the bank of the River Salwin. Schmidt was asleep and Brunhuber was writing at a table when one of their Chinese servants ran into the tent saying that the men from the neighboring village were advancing to attack them. Brunhuber replied that as he had done nothing wrong to the villagers there was no danger and he gave the servants presents to dispatch to the villagers. He then resumed writing. The servant wanted to take a gun, but Brunhuber replied that his mission was a peaceful one and that a weapon was inappropriate. While he continued to write some of the natives threw back the flap of the tent. Brunhuber rose and as he did so a lance struck him in the breast and he received several sabre cuts. He ran out of the tent, jumped into the river, swam nearly a mile down the stream and landed on an exhausted condition on a sand bank. Schmidt was killed while he was sleeping. The natives found Brunhuber the following morning, stripped him of his clothing, hung him into the stream and disappeared.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 8.—The foreign minister has announced the settlement of the dispute at Harbin between the German consul there and the Russian authorities over the refusal of the proprietor of a German brewery to pay certain taxes. The consul has admitted officially that the brewery has no claim to German protection, and at his orders the German flag has been taken down from the brewery building. The German consul at Moukden has assumed charge of the situation, and proceedings have been begun against German subjects for insulting Russian officials.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

Young Grayhold Peabody Probably Took His Own Life.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 8.—Grayhold Peabody, said to be the son of Eliot H. Peabody, a lawyer of Worcester, Mass., died at the City hospital here yesterday as a result of a revolver wound inflicted early yesterday morning. The police hold to the theory that he committed suicide, but some mystery surrounds the shooting.

Little is known here of Peabody. He was about 25 years old and is said to have been an electrician out of work. The shooting occurred in the temporary office of the night watchman, in an office building in course of construction on Walnut street.

The watchman, who was in the office at the time, was taken to the station and questioned, but later released. According to his story, the watchman was examining his revolver when Peabody asked to see it.

"I turned around for a moment," declared the watchman, "and a moment later Peabody had shot himself."

On the way to the hospital Peabody told the officer that the watchman had accidentally shot him.

First Notification.
Worcester, Mass., Oct. 8.—Eliot H. Peabody of this city, is the father of the young man who died in Kansas City yesterday as the result of a revolver wound.

The elder Peabody is an attorney employed at the Worcester county registry of deeds. He said that the Associated Press dispatch from Kansas City was the only notification he had received concerning his son's death.

Grayhold Peabody was about 25 years of age and, according to his father, had been employed by an electrical company either in Rochester, N. Y., or New York City. Mr. Peabody received a letter from his son about three weeks ago.

Mrs. Peabody, the young man's mother, is in feeble health and it was decided to withhold from her, for the present, the news of her son's death.

A PLEASANT WAY TO CURE CATARRH
Poor debilitated victims! Constantly sprinkling and spraying and stomach dosing. What are you doing it for? Trying to kill the catarrh germ? Might just as well try to kill a cat with fresh milk.

Sticking a piece of chewing gum in the upper left hand corner of the right ear would slaughter just as many germs.

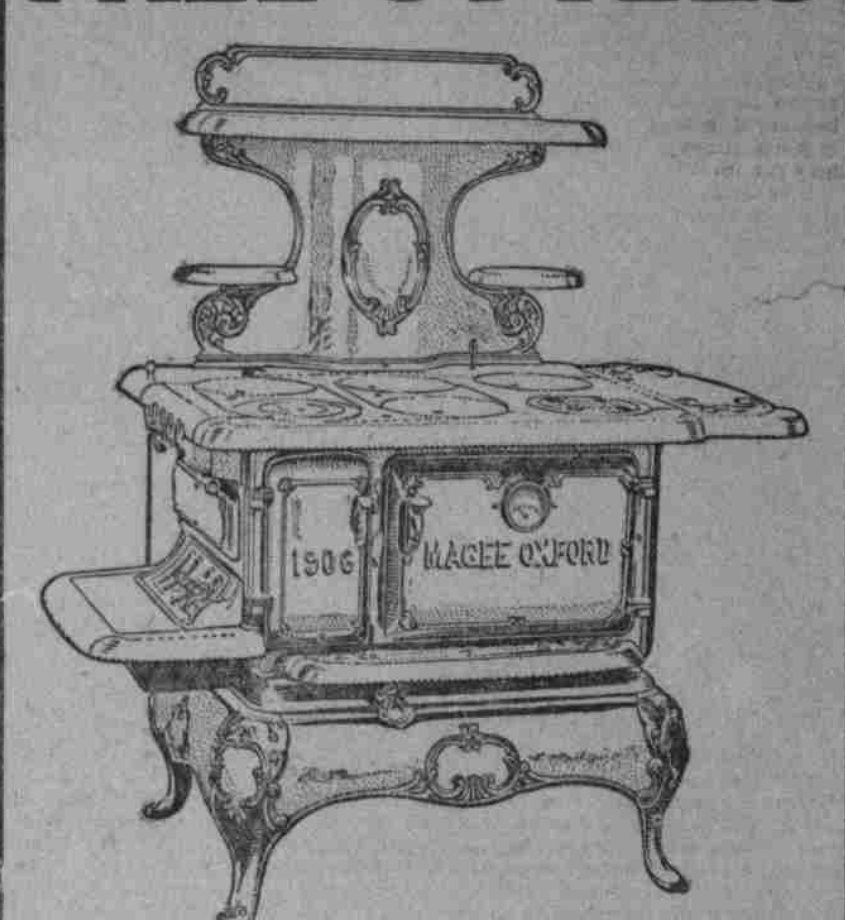

You can't kill the germs that cause catarrh unless you get where they are. You can get where the germs are by breathing Hyomei, the powerful yet soothing antiseptic, which is prepared especially to kill catarrh germs.

Just breathe it in, that's all. It gives joyful relief in five minutes. It is guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy to cure catarrh, or money back.

It is sold by leading druggists everywhere. A complete outfit, including inhaler, costs $1.00. Extra bottles, 50c. Cures sore throat, coughs and colds.

"I take especial pride in recommending Hyomei to asthmatic sufferers, as I know by experience that it is a remedy that cures. I have not since using Hyomei had any recurrence of asthma."—Mrs. Wm. Burton, Owasso, Mich., June 22, 1909.
